Our planning meetings will be held the second Wednesday of each month at 6 p.m. at the bookstore. We have several chair positions open, and encourage all who would like to be of service to join us in the planning of Unity Day, 2013. If you have any questions, call Gretchen at 799-7548 or e-mail me at gootch1957@comcast.net.

OUTREACH COMMITTEE

The SCIF Outreach Committee is looking for volunteers. It is a great way to be of service and takes very little time. Members of the Outreach Committee attend meetings that currently do not have an Intergroup Representative and, when possible, help the meeting to acquire one.

Intergroup representation is so important, as it gives the meetings a voice in what is happening in the Sonoma County Fellowship. Having more meetings represented in the SCIF is our goal. If you are interested, please contact Ben G. at 393-0439, or e-mail outreach@sonoma-countyaa.org.

ALKATHON PLANNING MEETING

Planning meetings for the Holiday Alkathons. will be held on the third Monday of each month at 7 p.m. at the Bookstore.

Those of Us With “Special Needs”

We all know what it feels like to not be able to drink like “normal people.” We have all gone through the pain of “being different” and isolating to avoid interactions with others. Today with the 360-plus meetings available every week here in Sonoma County, we have endless opportunities to break isolation and yet some of us still find it difficult to take advantage of these opportunities. We are those who experience mental, emotional or physical barriers that interfere with our recovery.

Over the last decade, because of my diminishing hearing I have again started to feel “different” in A.A. meetings. I tried new hearing aids and that helped some. I tried sitting in the middle of the room where I hoped to hear everyone share, but many members’ voices sounded intermittent like a cell phone going out of range. I tried assisted listening devices but moving the microphone around became futile. Frustrated, I went back to old behavior and gave up on meetings.

Fortunately, I was invited to Unity Day where radio transmitted listening was provided. I took my old transistor radio and headset and felt right at home. There I found out about Access Sonoma County (ASC) that works to educate SCIF and all of us alcoholics on how we can make A.A. more accessible to everyone including those with emotional, mental and physical complications to our recovery.

Through ASC, I found Signs of Sobriety that provides an ASL interpreter for the deaf at all its meetings. Although we meet in a small crowded room, for us with hearing limitations it is easier to hear because people are in closer proximity to each other. In addition, many of us are learning sign language. Consequently, I am again participating more in A.A. At Signs of Sobriety, I became secretary of a speaker discussion meeting for the first time in my life. I am also attending ASC regularly and learning what I can do to make sure the hand of A.A. is available when anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help.

Thanks to those who contribute to the green can – the money goes to pay for ASL interpreters. And thanks to the Sonoma County Intergroup Fellowship for growing support for those of us with “special needs.” A.A. continues to reach out its hand to include all of us.

— Patrick M.

NOTES FROM THE GRAPEVINE

Have you done it yet? Over 19,700 people have already done it ... why not you? All of these people are getting a quick reminder of how we do it in A.A., by getting Grapevine Quotes in their email. These little quotes remind me that I have support, that I’m just not that unique in how my mind works and that I have a way to get centered and restart my day every time I read one of these quotes. At aagrapevine.org, you can find an abundance of literature to meet your needs! The newest book is “One on One,” a compilation of Grapevine stories about sponsorship. Maybe a good idea for people who don’t want a sponsor, and for those sponsors who are trying to explain what they are good for and not.

Thank you for letting me be of service, it’s really working my self-centered boredom down to a bitty piece of me. I think it helps a lot with developing compassion in relationships. Please feel free to call me (see page 8) with any questions you have about LaViña or the Grapevine.

— Gratefully, Suzanne A.

GENERAL SERVICE

Summer Assembly in Crescent City

What's happening in General Service right now is the anticipation of the Summer Assembly, which will be August 10 in Crescent City hosted by District 15. I know, it's way up "there" but when have we ever let that stop us? District 15 makes the effort every month to come to the Area Committee meeting in Petaluma. So once every few years we can make to the trip up there. Besides, there are so many reasons to make the long trek.

First and foremost is the ride sharing that we do. Take another alcoholic in your car and you have an instant meeting. Second is the fantastic hospitality of the Del Norte area. I hear that their Intergroup is barbecuing the Friday night pre-assembly dinner and it's free. Can't get more hospitable than that. And last but not least, by attending the Summer Assembly we all contribute to the unity of A.A. and our own recovery. The gift of this simple act will pay handsomely in spiritual benefits. Hope to see you there!

— Joann L.

HOSPITALS & INSTITUTIONS

"It is evident that the harmony, security and future effectiveness of A.A. will depend largely upon our maintenance of a thoroughly non-aggressive and pacific attitude in all our public relations. This is an exacting assignment, because in our drinking days we were prone to anger, hostility, rebellion and aggression. Even though we are now sober, the old patterns of behavior are to a degree still with us, always threatening to explode on any good excuse."

"But we now know this and therefore I feel confident that in the conduct of our public affairs we shall always find the grace to exert restraint."

—Twelve Concepts, p. 69

The July 3, 2013, meeting of the Hospitals & Institutions Committee welcomed new meeting reps Terri J., representing the Book and Discussion Group (Sonoma); Jeanette J., Simply A.A.; Ann R., Expect a Miracle; Carol B., Moment of Silence; Kim P., Graton Fellowship; Mary Ann, Friday Nooners; Mathias, Chopstix (Rohnert Park); and Catherine H., Mid-morning Serenity. Thank you all for being of service! We nearly reached the century mark again with the sobriety birthdays for July!

The five-minute share was given by Beverly B. who admitted that at first it was difficult to say "yes to A.A.," that she didn't fully surrender to the program, "got busy" and drank again. Fortunately, she was then willing to go to any lengths to keep her sobriety and, when her sponsor strongly encouraged her to take an H&I commitment, she did. She came to her first H&I Committee meeting and thought, "These people are way too happy — I want some of that!" She became involved in the committee, taking various meetings into facilities where others do not have the luxury of going to meetings as we on the "outside" do. She learned to put A.A. first—one day, one month, one meeting at a time.

Would you like to share the message with an alcoholic who is confined? Please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wed., Aug. 7 at 6:15 p.m. The orientation that begins at 5:45 the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Ln.

— In service, Mardi

BRIDGING THE GAP

Ready for the Call

Bridging the Gap is alive and well in Sonoma County ! BTG brings approximately 10 presentations a month in to various institutions and facilities in Sonoma County and we offer the clients in a facility a person to accompany them to a A.A. meeting upon their release. That person just might be you.

We maintain a list of women and men in Sonoma County who volunteer to take people to meetings. The biggest complaint I hear is "BTG never calls me." If you have not received a call, be patient. Remember that we match clients up with volunteers based on the clients' age, address and gender. Just being on the list is a service commitment, but if you are not on the list you will never get called. If you are a person who always hides when service positions become available, consider BTG. The only commitment we need from you is to be there for the alcoholic who has asked for help and wants to be introduced to A.A. in their home area. If you have any questions, please join us at our monthly business meeting at the bookstore on the third Tuesday of every month; 6 p.m. for new orientations and 6:30 for the regular meeting. See you there !

— In service, Tom F

PI/CPC NEWS

Working with the Professional Community

PI/CPC stands for Public Information and Cooperation with the Professional Community. Public Information means informing the public, both in and out of A.A., about what Alcoholics Anonymous is and is not. Cooperation with the professional community is simply informing and educating people who may work with potential alcoholics i.e. teachers, lawyers, doctors, clergy, police, courts, etc.

We love getting suggestions from other A.A.s as to who we could or should give a panel presentation to. If you have any ideas of an organization or group we could bring the message of A.A. to, please let us know. We also send out "packets" that we as alcoholics can give to our doctors and clergy. These packets are filled with information made specifically for doctors or clergy. You may have seen these on the literature table of your favorite meeting. If you have not, please ask your GSR.

We meet the second Wednesday of every month at City Hall underground parking lot meeting room. Speaker training starts at 7 p.m. and regular meeting is from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

— Cindy L.

TELESERVICE FLASH

The Hotline — A.A.'s Front Line

As a hotline volunteer you are the voice of hope. You can help alcoholic, as well as non-alcoholic, callers. Calls range from directions to meetings to Twelfth Step work. Get into service, help a drunk in need.

If you're interested, contact Joe at 591-9376, or email teleservice@sonomacountyaa.org and sign up for a shift or get on the waiting list.
