UNITY DAY PLANNING CONTINUES

Our last planning meeting went well, and I want to thank all who attended and are making this Unity Day a reality here in Sonoma County. As you read this, we have two months to go before the event, and we have a number of jobs that need your participation, so please consider coming to the bookstore on August 11th, 6:30-7:30 p.m., for our next planning meeting.

We need people to take on some important work, such as helping us plan and organize our potluck, which is one of the attractions of this event. Every year I am amazed at the variety of foods we get to sample at lunch, and the care with which people prepare such wonderful foods to supplement the great menu that our chefs Nicole and Chris M. have envisioned for this 80th A.A. birthday celebration of unity, service and recovery. We also need a program coordinator, who will essentially keep our event running smoothly and on time. I hope to visit some of our service-oriented meetings in August to garner a commitment for two big jobs: set-up and break-down.

If you are wondering what the job might require, or if you might be interested in doing outreach to meetings in our fellowship, just call or email me. My number and address are on the back page of this newsletter. I ask for this because the sheer number of meetings we enjoy in this county does not permit me to visit them all. In addition, 9-10 service organizations will be represented at this event, either through tabling or speaking in our panels. If I have not yet approached your particular service entity, please let me know and hopefully come to our next planning meeting—August 11th, 6:30-7:30 p.m. at the bookstore—we need your input as well as help doing outreach. The event will be held on October 10th at the Enmanji Buddhist Temple in Sebastopol.

To those who are taking the time to read this, I thank you very much and I hope you will please share this message with all who are involved in service or wish to be. We need people who are willing to take some time out of their busy lives and help us to get this event off the ground.

Yours in service, James C.

Our schools coordinator is stepping up his outreach to other high schools in our area. We are in need of more young speakers to help present in the schools. If you're interested, please come to our speaker training the 2nd Wednesday of the month. We do have a 2 year sobriety requirement.

The other item of interest at PI is some recent interest and discussion about a late night radio broadcast organized and put on by some of our young people. Stay tuned to hear more on that.

If you are interested in getting involved, our business meeting is held the 2nd Wednesday of the month @ 7:30pm at the Santa Rosa City Hall Employee Lounge "underground". New speaker training starts at 7pm.

General Service: (Jennifer B.) Our barbecue was a lot of fun and the delegate's conference report was recorded and will be available at our district meeting.

As a result of the conference, there is now a call for stories of experience, strength and hope from the fellowship: The literature committee is requesting recovery experience from members with mental health issues and from those who sponsors such members for inclusion in NEW literature on this topic. The pamphlet "AA for the Woman" is being updated and they are especially looking for stories from women in the military, single mothers, and women of more diverse backgrounds than what is already in there. For the update of the pamphlet "AA and the Gay/Lesbian Alcoholic," the literature committee is hoping for a wider range of recovery experience which also encompasses transgender and gender nonconforming members, and especially for stories regarding being a newcomer and sponsorship. The deadline for all the stories is October 15. Please see your group's GSR or contact me for more information.

The Summer Assembly is coming to Petaluma on Aug 1. Please see your newsletter for details.

Bridging the Gap: (Linda W. for Bill D.) Committee meets the third Tuesday of the month at 6:30 p.m. Volunteers needed (presenters and drivers). 43 contacts made last month in 1011 facilities.

Access Sonoma County: (John F.) Pain Management Workshop was a great success. Meeting on Wheels going well.

ICSC Nominating Committee: (Mike C.) Two people needed. Minimum of five (5) years sobriety and business background encouraged.

OLD BUSINESS: None.

NEW BUSINESS: None.

Group Representative Sharing: None.

ADJOURNMENT: The meeting adjourned at 8:44 p.m. with the Responsibility Statement.

In service, Jennifer R.

NEWS FROM THE BOOKSTORE

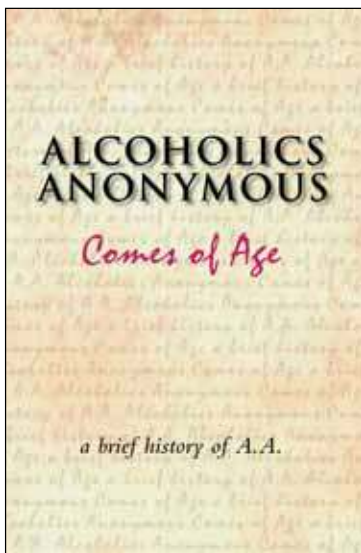

This is an excellent book to read whether you're a history enthusiast or not. It gives an inside view of what A.A. was like in the beginning and all the trials and tribulations they went through to get to where we are today.

This book will be on sale for the month of August 2015. The regular price is $13.84, but for the month of August it will be on sale for 20% off at a price of $11.07 plus tax.

The bookstore is doing well. The response to the need for volunteers was fabulous. I think we are good for now and will be training some people but it is good to have all the backup applications.

Thank you to everyone for your willingness to be of service to your community.

— Donna K., SCIF Central Office/Bookstore Manager

PI/CPC NEWS

P.I.C.P.C. in A.A. & Y.O.U. (punctuation added for emphasis)

Y.O.U. probably don't know what the acronym PI/CPC stands for because most people don't. Even the alkie serving on the committee stumble saying the letters sometimes. That's okay! Y.O.U. can still be of service on our committee.

But let's talk about Y.O.U. You know this person. They are the one who is looking for ways to get into the middle of Alcoholics Anonymous. Are Y.O.U. looking for a different and cool way to carry the message? Then come to our business meeting and find out how A.A. reaches the professional community. Here are some of the things we do: distribute literature to places like libraries, doctors' offices and churches; we also speak at places like schools, DUI classes and other community settings. We need Y.O.U. to help us carry the message in a more public way.

PS: We still need back issues of the Grapevine to distribute as a test project. If you have any to donate, you can drop them off at the bookstore to my attention.

Don't forget: August 12th at the Santa Rosa City Hall Underground! Speaker training starts at 7 p.m. and the general meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. See you there!

Happy Recovery, Ginger D.

Suggestions & Submissions for Newsletter Welcome

HOSPITALS & INSTITUTIONS

"For Dr. Bob, the insatiable craving for alcohol was evidently a physical phenomenon which bedeviled several of his first years in A.A., a time when only days and nights of carrying the message to other alcoholics could cause him to forget about drinking. Although his craving was hard to withstand, it doubtless did account for some part of the intense incentive that went into forming Akron's Group Number One.

"Bob's spiritual release did not come easily; it was to be painfully slow. It always entailed the hardest kind of work and the sharpest vigilance."

—A.A. Comes of Age

The July 1, 2015, meeting of the Hospitals and Institutions Committee gave a very warm welcome (one of our hottest days so far) to our newest meeting reps: Bill A., representing the Sunday Morning Villa A.A. group (Healdsburg); Dan L., Knuckleheads (men); Jeremiah T., Redwood Winners (Windsor); Gail M., Step Sisters; Sharon O., 12&12 Discussion Group; Debbie D., Women's Lunch Bunch (Petaluma); Amy E., Women's Step Study (Sebastopol); and Tiffany D., 11th Step Meditation (Healdsburg). Thank you all for being of service.

Our visitors included Bill, Dustin and Chris—welcome!

Over 70 years worth of sobriety was being celebrated for the month of July!

The five-minute share was given by Mark, who related that his first experience with H&I was many years ago in a facility meeting. He admitted that he did not pay a lot of attention to what was being said, except to note that "the same guy would show up week after week." He had been out on his own for a while, suffering a number of personal losses, and was "sick and tired of being sick and tired." He remembered "that guy," and started to get involved in A.A. and H&I—which made all the difference in his life. He is, he stated, "grateful for H&I planting the seed."

Another alcoholic needs you—would you like to share your gift with an alcoholic who is confined? For suggestions on how to do that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, August 5, 2015, at 6:15 p.m. As always, everyone is welcome to attend the orientation that begins at 5:45. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue (parking is off of Range, behind the church, with additional parking at the ice arena).

In service, Mardi

"Even the newest of newcomers finds undreamed rewards as he tries to help his brother alcoholic, the one who is even blinder than he. This is indeed the kind of giving that actually demands nothing. He does not expect his brother sufferer to pay him, or even to love him. And then he discovers that by the divine paradox of this kind of giving he has found his own reward, whether his brother has yet received anything or not."

— Twelve Steps and Twelve Traditions, pg. 109

ACCESS SONOMA COUNTY

Is your home group “kid friendly”? What about the other meetings that you frequent? According to our most recent meeting directory, meetings that identify as kid friendly are pretty scarce. That could be a serious problem for an alcoholic who needs a meeting but is responsible for a child. It could work out pretty badly for the child, too.

Each group decides its own policy on such issues and with our tradition of autonomy, each group is inherently “right” in whatever policy they choose. Perhaps with the exception of closed meetings where attendance is limited to alcoholics, there is no official “A.A. way” when it comes to welcoming members’ children at meetings, or not. Some groups decide that their meeting isn’t appropriate for kids. Others will welcome well-behaved kids. A couple of meetings locally even have childcare provided by group members so a parent can get a meeting without distraction.

Of course, we at Access have absolutely no opinion on how your group deals with the issue. We would however...in the spirit of making the A.A. message accessible to all...ask you to check your listing in the meeting directory and see if your meeting is listed with a “K” for Kids-Children welcome. It would be a shame if a parent who needed a meeting and would have been welcome at your group missed out because of an incorrect listing. Thank you for your service!

In service, Dan F.

2015 ALKATHON LOTTERY

Intergroup would like to announce the 2015 Alkathon lottery. Each A.A. group may host one or more of the 14 Alkathon meetings scheduled for Thanksgiving, Christmas, or New Year’s Eve. The Alkathon lottery forms will be available at the July Intergroup General Meeting and at the bookstore. Please have your Intergroup representative bring the completed form to the SCIF General Meeting on September 28, 2015. Directly following the meeting a lottery will be held to determine which A.A. group(s) will host one or more of the Alkathon meetings. If your group does not have a rep, someone must be present to participate in the lottery process. There are no pre-designated meeting slots—all slots are open. The lottery will include all applications received, and will be chosen at random. This will be repeated until all slots are filled. Unfilled slots will be available to any SCIF group to fill at the conclusion of the lottery process. Each selected group’s representative will receive a notification with the time of their group’s meeting. Detailed instructions and responsibilities will be included. If you have questions about the Alkathons, or would like to volunteer, call Steve V. at 707-495-2538 or email alkathons@sonomacountyaa.org.

“To this day, I am amazed at how many of my problems—most of which had nothing to do with drinking, I believed—have become manageable or have simply disappeared since I quit drinking.”

— A.A. Big Book, pg. 416, ACCEPTANCE WAS THE ANSWER

BRIDGING THE GAP

Bridging the Gap Helped Save My Life

After thirty-five years of drinking, the last fifteen every day and the last five at an insane pace, I finally hit my bottom. When I checked into rehab on April 7th, 2014 my physical health was fading fast and my mental state had deteriorated into confusion and a recurring belief that maybe suicide was the best solution. I had tried quitting in the past and even gave A.A. a try a couple of times but it didn’t stick. Looking back I realize it didn’t stick because I didn’t truly understand the enormity of my problem.

From the moment I checked into rehab I heard the same thing over and over again. Go to meetings (90 in 90), get a sponsor, do the steps, find a higher power and get in service. I also realized that there was a time that I loved the high I got from alcohol and that returning to casual use was a pipe dream. Mainly because why would I want to do something once in a while that brought me great pleasure? If it pleases me I want to do it all the time, that’s how I’m wired... All or nothing. But that was still always my hope with previous stops in A.A.... That I could one day be “cured” and be a normal drinker again. Ha, cured! What does that mean? My brain did a wonderful job of making me believe that self-deception. Apparently left on its own, to guide my life, my brain wants to hurt me.

Rehab got me sober, A.A. has given me the tools I need to stay sober and Bridging the Gap has helped build my self-esteem, provided comradery, friendship, accountability and given me a purpose that I look forward to on a daily basis. For me it is true that the rewards of helping another alcoholic are greater than anything else in my life and that keeps me sober. And for me to drink is to wither away and die.

So, Bridging the Gap continues to help save my life in early sobriety.

Peace to you and God Bless, Keith

TELESERVICE FLASH

The Hotline — A.A.'s Front Line

As a hotline volunteer, you are the voice of hope. You can help alcoholic and non-alcoholic callers. Calls range from directions to meetings to Twelfth Step work. Get into service, help a drunk in need. If you're interested, contact Gus C. at 623-6662, or email teleservice@sonomacountyaa.org and sign up for a shift or get on the waiting list. We are currently collecting names for the hotline waiting list, the Twelfth Step volunteer list, and the vet's list.
