Internet vs. Traditions

"When we use digital media, we are responsible for our own anonymity and for protecting that of others. When we post, text, or blog, we should consider whether we are publishing at the public level. When we break our anonymity in these forums, we may inadvertently break the anonymity of others. (cont. pg. 2)

(cont. from pg. 1) "For more information on anonymity online see the pamphlet 'Understanding Anonymity' and the October 2010 issue of AA Grapevine on Anonymity on the Internet. "

Reprinted from MG-18 A.A. Guidelines - Internet, page 1, with permission of A.A. World Services, Inc.)

A blog from www.aagrapevine.org asked the question: When visiting social media web sites how do I maintain my anonymity? 34% answered, "I might discuss AA or Sobriety, but I never reveal I'm a member." 24% answered, "I use separate accounts so that I can maintain anonymity while talking about AA recovery." 42% answered, "I don't care if I break my anonymity."

A single respondent, identified as Anonymous, wrote, "My anonymity is critical to my work. I have, in my 21 years sober, been written out of a large will, lost clients, and lost jobs all due to other well meaning people breaking my anonymity because "its not a big deal for them." The big book is pretty clear on this 'We fiercely guard our anonymity and that of our member s.'

"With that said, I live in a fairly remote state and access is important. I have a Facebook page and I have settings so that others' friends can't read my friends' posts... I also started a sober page for friends of Bill that is secret. Posts show up on my page to me only. Anyone looking at my page will not see them and the same is true for all members. It's a page, not a group or meeting, but, it is a place to share the message of recovery. It doesn't replace 'face to face,' but it surely supplements it."

(See <http://www.aagrapevine.org/content/when-visiting-social-media-web-sites-how-do-i-maintain-my-anonymity-0> to view the entire blog post and responses as printed by the online Grapevine blog.)

A Facebook blog that I accidentally found was peppered with responses by supposed members using their full names! Worse yet, since I have a FB account, people can probably resource me, online. This would allow them member friends and family. And, because I'm attached to this new blog, they can probably reach the conclusion that I and many of my FB friends are members of A.A

I notice that many of those FB friends also refer to their A.A. birthdays, have group photos, and give advice to other members, online. Many of us seem to be inadvertently violating the Eleventh Tradition, "we need always maintain personal anonymity at the levels of press, radio and films."

And, if breaking the Eleventh Tradition isn't bad enough, some of the FB blogs also receive advertising from companies peddling other solutions for drug and alcohol addiction-- for a price. This could be a violation of Traditions 6 and 7.

So, the age of technology seems to be a blessing and a very big challenge if we are to preserve the Traditions.

Groups should check and report discrepancies in the Meeting Directory

A few years ago, my home group moved into a smaller more comfortable space at the same church where we had met. It was a better fit for us, but the new room had some unavoidable steps. The address was the same so we got a little "W" in the directory, even though we weren't wheelchair accessible.

Intergroup will get started making the Fall-Winter meeting directories soon. So, August, is a good time to think about some of those little letters that help people find the meeting they need.

Is your meeting wheelchair accessible? Does your space have 36 inch wide aisles, 32 inch wide doors (with an extra 18 inches of clear wall space on the pull side), and bathrooms with enough room to maneuver. If wheelchairs need to use a side door, is there signage or a greeter to let them know? Does your meeting welcome supervised children?

Greetings to the Sonoma County Fellowship!

Do you like to travel? Do you appreciate redwoods and the rugged Northern California coastline? Do you love A.A.? If the answer to any of these questions is yes, consider joining us at the Summer Assembly, held this year on August 11th at the Fortuna River Lodge in Fortuna, CA.

The Summer Assembly is affectionately referred to as the "Fun Assembly" within General Service. Why fun? Well, just as in the rest of our lives, fun is what we make of it, and most of us find the rest of the Assemblies quite enjoyable as well. But with the work of the most recent General Service Conference behind us, and our District and Area elections still a ways off yet, we take an opportunity every summer to get together and hold workshops on a variety of topics. Think of it as an afternoon of seminars, like the marvelous ones frequently held at the Bookstore, but with two sessions. You have your choice of three different topics being presented and discussed in each session.

This year, some of our topics include: Self-Support at every level: More than money in the basket ; Accessibility for All: Identifying and Engaging Remote Communities; Humility and Me: Balance in Service; The Spirit of Service: Passing it On and Letting it Go, among others.

Registration for the Assembly begins at 8:45am, we will be starting our Business Meeting at 10am, lunch will be served around noon, and our workshops will begin at 1pm. Come join us for Food, Fun and Fellowship! We hope you can make it!

TELESERVICE

Teleservice staffs the A.A. hotline, providing 24-hour phone access to a live recovering alcoholic. This is vital Twelfth Step service; providing the hand of A.A. to the alcoholic reaching out for help. Calls are forwarded to your home or mobile phone, and training is provided. There are occasionally open shifts to fill. For information, see Teleservice listing above.
