SONOMA COUNTY INTERGROUP FELLOWSHIP GENERAL MEETING

Sonoma County Intergroup Fellowship General Meeting – October 22, 2012. Open meeting at 8:00 with Serenity Prayer

Reading of Preamble: (Chuck), Tradition Ten (Thorne D.), and Concept Ten (Laurie).

Intro of New Reps: Thomas B., Fresh Air Group, Santa Rosa; Carlos deV. LGBT Newcomers, Santa Rosa; Angelo F., New Sobriety, Santa Rosa; Ken L., Quitting Time, Petaluma; Luci Y., Women's Tuesday at Noon, Windsor; Phyllis M., Let's Discuss It, Cotati/Rohnert Park; Jennifer B., Friday Nooners, Santa Rosa.

Birthdays: Benjamin G. 5 yrs., Guy 8 yrs., Eric 2 yrs., Joe 4 yrs., Pat 2 yrs.

Officer Reports:

Chair: (Steve B.) Welcome everyone. Will be voting on an ICSC position later. Have a housekeeping motion to put forward to the group. Steve went through who can vote and explained what a housekeeping motion entails. Housekeeping Motion: To change General Meeting date for December from the 24th (Christmas Eve) to the 17th. There being one person not in favor, Steve used chairs rules and asked the group to vote on the motion. Unanimously passed.

Vice Chair: (Trevor H.) New reps that did not go to orientation please see Carolyn after meeting to sign in and see me for your orientation packet.

Secretary: (Patty G.) September 24, 2012 General Meeting minutes put forth and approved.

Treasurer: (Jimmie B.) Group contributions for September were $1,892 which is $1,830 less than September 2011. After group-supported expenses, we had a net loss of $1,578. Bookstore income was $6,674 and after expenses had a net loss of $570. Unity Day net income was $273. Overall we had a net loss for Central Office and Bookstore of $1,875.

Registrar: (Carolyn A.) Last month 230 groups offered 373 meetings per week in Sonoma County and at September's General Meeting there were 82 representatives for a 36% representation.

Bookstore report: (Linda M.) Central Office/Bookstore hours will change with daylight savings November 5 – Monday through Thursday 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Friday 10 a.m. to 6 p.m., and Saturday 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Attended the AAWS Intergroup Central Office Manager's seminar in Maryland. Attended five workshops and two evening presentations. AAWS announced there will be no price increase for books in 2013 and they are implementing cost cutting measures at the general office. Thanks to Jamie T. who donated a refurbished Dell computer to the office and Dave H. for installing.

ICSC: (Sean M.) ICSC is responsible for the operation of the Intergroup Office/Bookstore as well as advising the Steering Committee on matters affecting SCIF's non-profit status. Will be doing annual review of bookstore manager by end of the year.

Committee Reports:

Activities: (Tina C.) Halloween Dance was great success. Thanks to all volunteers and attendees. Had lots of support and more than 300 people there. Next event is New Year's Eve Dance at the Odd Fellows Hall in Santa Rosa. Please contact Tina to volunteer. Fliers will be available next month. Passing around volunteer sign up tonight. Committee meeting next month before General Meeting.

Alkathons: (Kathy M.) Volunteer signup sheet being passed around. Volunteer meeting October 19 at 6pm at bookstore. If you can't cook a turkey, please bring raw (unfrozen) one to Alkathon and we'll take care of cooking. All groups that have signed up will get a reminder call. Christmas and New Year's filling up.

Communications/Newsletter: (Barry D.) Bookstore's new hours listed in front of newsletter. Deadline for next issues are November 16 and December 7. Thanks to all volunteers and members providing articles. Lots of people contribute to content of our newsletter.

Unity Day: (Larry O.) Not present. Question about attendance. Patty G. said there were about 200 paid attendees with lots of members in and out throughout the day.

Outreach: (Ben G.) More volunteers needed - to attend women's meetings and meetings beyond Santa Rosa. Purpose is to go to meetings that don't currently have an Intergroup rep and let secretary know what value is of participating in Intergroup. Last month went to four meetings and two will possibly add a representative. Anyone interested in joining committee, please contact Ben.

Seminars: (Chris M.) Next seminar will be in January 2013. More to come.

Teleservice: (Steve B.) Friday overnight shift and Monday morning shifts open. Always looking for people to get on waiting list.

Liaison Reports:

SOCYPAA: (Natalie L.) Meet 1st and 3rd Sunday each month. Volunteer positions are open. Next event is a scavenger hunt on November 16, includes A.A. meeting in Sebastopol. Our purpose is to make sobriety fun and help young people still suffering from this disease.

Spanish Central Office: (Ricardo M.) Not present.

H&I: (Patrick W.) New chair is Laurie. New meeting at Our House (18 years and under) and St. Anthony's Farm has asked for a meeting.

General Service: (Michael Q.) Thanks to Larry O. and committee for a great Unity Day. Unity is Sonoma County is unparalleled. November 3 District 12 will host our CNCA Fall Election Assembly in Cloverdale. Will be electing new Delegate and Area officers for two year terms. Fliers are on the table – all are welcome. November 5 District 12 will elect new officers – including a new DCMC -- at our monthly business meeting. Again, all are welcome. If you're interested in how A.A. is linked as a whole and how your trusted servants are elected, please join us for one or both events.

Bridging the Gap: (Linda W.) BTG volunteers accompany people just out of programs to their first A.A. meeting. Volunteers make presentations at recovery centers. People sign up and are matched with A.A. volunteers to be taken to first meeting. If you'd like to help please contact Allen H. or Claudia N.

PI/CPC: (Felicia C.) Having elections. Lots of ways to participate. Great article in newsletter. Meeting listed on calendar.

Access Sonoma County: (John F.) Want to know more about ASC, come to our monthly meeting. We make A.A. more accessible to everyone. New listing of child-friendly meetings available at bookstore.

Old Business: None

New Business: None

ICSC Election: Ernest W. introduced two nominees for one 18-month position – John F. and Randy. Each nominee gave brief description of his qualifications. John F. elected to ICSC. Steve B. thanks Sean M. for stepping up and doing great job on committee.

Group Representatives Sharing: Tina C., Best Damn Meeting Ever needs support. Steve B. noted that Steering Committee elections for all positions will be held in January 2013 and committee chair position elections will be in February 2013. Please consider making yourself available.

Summation: What to Take Back to Your Groups

The meeting was closed with the Responsibility Statement at 8:54 p.m. — In Service, Patty G.

Accurate Information About Alcoholism and A.A.

The temperature is a perfect Northern California 75 degrees, with a light breeze right now as I bask in the early November sunshine, feeling amazingly content with my life. It's about 1:30 in the afternoon and my mind drifts back to a place in time a bit over 21 years ago. I had reached a bottom in my miserable, chaotic, alcoholic life. My then husband and I had initiated what was to be a devastating separation for me, and I was seeing a therapist. Although I cried through most of the first session or two, my therapist was able, in his wisdom to gather enough information from me to make a suggestion that I try attending a couple of A.A. meetings! As desperate as I was, I trusted this man, and I was willing to try anything he suggested if it might relieve the pain I was feeling.

The sense of belonging, relief and hope that I found after just my first A.A. meeting was beyond wonderful! I really believed a happy, joyous, and free new life awaited me. I was so grateful that my therapist knew enough about A.A. to suggest it to me.

It would be many years of sobriety later that I would learn about our committee Public Information and Cooperation with the Professional Community Committee (PI/CPC), and their job: To give accurate information about Alcoholics Anonymous to the public and to professionals who work with alcoholics (like my therapist).

Today, I am reminded of the gratitude that is expressed to me by recipients and benefactors of our presentations. I have heard it said "Greater love has no one than this, than to lay down his life for his friends." So, to our committee members and speakers, who lay down their lives each time they go out to speak and share, we are eternally grateful for your service and we say "Thanks to you lives are truly being transformed and saved!"

Please join us on this life saving journey. PI/CPC meets the second Wednesday of every month at City Hall (Employees Lounge by underground parking) in Santa Rosa. Speaker training is at 7 p.m. and the business meeting follows from 7:30-8:30 p.m.

— Diana W.

TELESERVICE FLASH

The Hotline — A.A.'s Front Line

As a hotline volunteer you are the voice of A.A. You can help alcoholic, as well as non-alcoholic, callers. Calls range from directions to meetings to Twelfth Step work. Currently, the Wednesday overnight 10 p.m.-9 a.m. shift is open. Get into service, help a drunk in need. If you're interested, contact Joe at 591-9376, or email teleservice@sonomacountyaa.org and sign up for a shift or get on the waiting list.

Bookstore Stocking Up for the Holidays

We would like to welcome two new Bookstore volunteers, Mike C. and Margaret B.. Mike and Margaret are working alternate Monday morning shifts and we thank them for their service.

The Bookstore is stocking up for the Holidays. We have new jewelry and gift items, fancy chips and the full line of Grapevine publications that will bring cheer to one and all.

The Bookstore will be open until 2 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 24 so plan to shop early. On Monday Dec. 31 the Bookstore will be open until 1 p.m. and we will be performing the year-end inventory at 12 noon on Jan. 1, 2013.

— In service, Linda M.

ACCESS SONOMA COUNTY

Thank You to All Who Made Access Possible

We are coming to the end of another panel of service for Alcoholics Anonymous. Last year we lost the founder of Access with the passing of Diane W. and a few other key members had to resign for personal reasons. But in the spirit of rotation, others from the Fellowship have stepped up to keep the work going. Thank you to all of you who have helped this committee continue to do its work, helping to make the message of Alcoholics Anonymous and participation in our program available to everyone who reaches out for it. We have finished this panel with the completion of updating all of our literature. It is now available at the SCIF Bookstore on 750 Mendocino Ave. Suite 10.

If you are interested in the work of this committee and would like to check it out, please join us on the second Thursday of the month at 6:30 pm at the Bookstore. We would love to have you join us.

— Joanne L.

A New World of Service Discovered

Hi, I'm Brad I'm an alcoholic. I would like to hurry up and finish this article because I am running out of time, my procrastination defect showing again! Anyway, I would like to share a little about my experience with Bridging the Gap (BTG).

I got to BTG by way of a good friend, and I am forever grateful that he brought me to my first committee meeting.

I have found a whole new world of service, and A.A. that has made me realize how much richer and fuller A.A. is when I am in service to the man who still suffers. BTG has given me an opportunity to work directly with the very early newcomers. I have been able to carry the message that they are not alone, and take a few to their first meeting — very cool. I have been able to return to the treatment center I came from and carry the message, what a gift! I would love to tell you more. Come to a committee meeting.

Bridging the Gap meets the third Tuesday of the month at the Bookstore. New rep. orientation is at 6 p.m., business meeting is at 6:30 p.m.

— In service Brad S.

HOSPITALS & INSTITUTIONS

“One exercise that I practice is to try for a full inventory of my blessings and then for a right acceptance of the many gifts that are mine — both temporal and spiritual. Here I try to achieve a state of joyful gratitude. When such a brand of gratitude is repeatedly affirmed and pondered, it can finally displace the natural tendency to congratulate myself on whatever progress I may have been enabled to make in some areas of living.”

“I try hard to hold fast to the truth that a full and thankful heart cannot entertain great conceits. When brimming with gratitude, one's heartbeat must surely result in outgoing love, the finest emotion that we can ever know.”

— (Bill W., Grapevine, July 1962)

The November meeting of the Hospitals & Institutions Committee welcomed the following new meeting reps.: Molly U., representing the Young People's Meeting; Paul, Beginners' Group; Pam S., How it Works; Julie B., Women's Group (Petaluma); Janice, Petaluma Old School; George R., Santa Rosa Fellowship; and John, Keep it Simple and Big Book Study (Petaluma). Thank you for being of service!

A warm welcome was also extended to visitors Wendy, Mary, Zoe, Joan, Jean, Monique, Julie and Marie. We hope you find something here that keeps you coming back. More than 66 years worth of sobriety was being celebrated for the month of November!

How about sharing your full and thankful heart with an alcoholic who is confined? For suggestions on how to do just that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, Dec. 5, 2012, at 6:15 p.m. Orientation begins at 5:45. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue. We look forward to seeing you there!

— In service, Mardi

Great Gift Ideas from the Grapevine Website

Happy Holidays everyone! Time for gratitude and gifts. November is Gratitude Month in our Fellowship and sobriety a priceless gift. If you are wondering what to “gift” your A.A. friends this season, go to www.aagrapevine.org and click on “store” and you will find a lot of wonderful, inexpensive gifts items that will enhance someone's recovery, serenity and spirituality.

The best gift you can give would be a subscription to the magazine — so that every month a gift (the new magazine) arrives in the mail! Or for around $10 you can gift a CD such as: “The Best of Bill.” This new audio-book contains five of Bill's most powerful Grapevine articles sharing his thought on faith, fear, honesty, humility and love. The essays discuss the spiritual principles that have helped millions of people recover from alcoholism and continue to enrich lives. There are a lot of incredible CDs on the site, not to mention books, e-books and other items. Check them out!

The 2013 wall calendar is now available for $9 with photos that reflect the joy of living, serenity and other sobriety themes. The calendar contains full-color photographs taken by our readers, accompanied by brief quotes selected from Grapevine articles. The quotes aren't directly related to either A.A. or alcoholism, so the calendar may be displayed anonymously.

Did you know that there is an area on www.aagrapevine.org/gvr designed for Grapevine and La Viña reps? On this page you'll find the Grapenet Forum, many resources from fellow representatives on successful ways to support Grapevine and La Viña and tools and resources such as: Register/Sign up; Workbook/GV Guide; Handbook; FAQs; Display Gallery; Plays; and Comp. Material Request Form. All things to enhance your experience with the Grapevine. Check out the aagrapevine.org website today.

Wishing you a happy, joyous holiday season.

— Judy B., Grapevine Chair for District 12

GENERAL SERVICE

Positions Still Need to be Filled

Hello Fellowship, Here's what's going on in General Service: Elections happened and will continue to happen next month. The following positions have been filled: District Committee Member Chair - Joann L.; Alternate District Committee Chair - Jennifer B.; Treasurer - Bob F.; Registrar - Carol T.; Recording Secretary - Mary L.; Literature Chair - Tom

Please search your heart to see if you are available for the remaining positions: Grapevine Chair, Archives Chair, Newsletter Editor and District 18 Liaison. Please announce to your groups that all of the subcommittees will be holding elections this month. There are many ways to be of service: Bridging the Gap, ACCESS, Public Information/Cooperation with the Professional Community and the Interpretation and Translation Committee. Please see the calendar in this newsletter for the time and date of these subcommittee meetings.

Please share with your groups what you saw, heard and felt at these elections and at the Area election in Cloverdale.

— In humble service, Pete J.
