NOTES FROM THE BOOKSTORE

The yearend Bookstore inventory was completed on Sunday January 3rd and I would like to thank all of the volunteers who turned out to help with the count. It is inspiring to see members of our fellowship working together on a project like this because they show up with great willingness and energy to be of service and work in unity with each other for a common purpose. At the same time they seem to enjoy themselves and have fun as they perform the task at hand, I guess this is recovery in action. So the Bookstore inventory can be looked at as an example of our Three Legacies: Unity, Service and Recovery. Our next inventory will be in March so mark your calendars.

There are no volunteer shifts currently open at the Bookstore.

In service, Linda M.

FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Sonoma County Fellowship -

I would like to encourage the fellowship to submit articles, jokes, cartoons and letters to the editor, which I will do my best to get into publication as space permits. The best way to submit material is by email, although anything directed to me via the bookstore will reach me. For material that is not time-sensitive, I will keep it until I can find a good spot. There is always a tight timeline in order to get the newsletter printed, so all submissions should be made as early as possible. Our deadline is the second Friday of the month.

There is a Communications committee meeting on the third Thursday of every month, which is open to all who have an interest in what Intergroup presents in the newsletter as well as on the website. I am particularly keen on finding someone who is willing to help with producing the newsletter - it is a great commitment and a wonderful learning opportunity for one with the interest.

I hope that everyone finds the newsletter informative and accurate. I appreciate all feedback if there are errors or omissions so that I can correct them in the future. SCIF will be holding elections for this committee chair along with the others in February. I plan to run, but anyone interested is welcome. We can always use help if there is someone with the necessary skills to be available as a backup editor.

Thank you for letting be of service. I am finding that being the editor has drawn me deeper into the AA program, and has given me a much better understanding of how all our various branches work together. As with all service, it has also kept me a little further away from that next drink!

Brian Z.

CORRECTIONS

If there are corrections to the newsletter, please contact the editor, Brian Z. at newsletter@sonomacountyaa.org or the bookstore and we will publish them here.

GENERAL SERVICE

General Service District 12 Sonoma County, will be hosting an Agenda Topics Workshop on Saturday, February 20th. Your groups GSR's will be receiving the 2010 Agenda Topics shortly from GSO in New York. What will be demonstrated at this workshop will be the procedure on how to conduct a group sharing session and then come up with a group conscience on the Agenda Topic discussed. GSRs will conduct mock sharing sessions, at this workshop, to see the process. With this "hands on" experience your groups GSRs will gain the knowledge on how to bring Agenda Topics to your respective groups, for discussion and then get your groups conscience on the Agenda Topic you discussed. Please make yourself available at your meeting when your GSR announces a sharing session on Agenda Topics. If an announcement is not offered by your GSR, request one. This process can produce a group unity. This workshop is open to all who are interested. Come check it out, you might get hooked on General Service. Next months column will explain what your GSRs do with the group consciences.

SOCYPAA

February, that month of hearts, chocolates and love and stuff. What no love for you right now? Your in luck ,me neither but I'm still going to have fun on Valentines weekend going to ACYPAA. What is that you speak of Craig, you ask? Well it's the All California Young People in AA Round up.

It's a huge convention that moves around the state for the Young and Young at Heart. This will be SOCYPAA's, (Sonoma County Young People in AA) 4th time bidding to bring the convention here to Sonoma County.

We would love to have as much support as possible, so anyone who wants to go to San Diego during the weekend that actually starts on Thurs Feb 11th through the 14th should should come down and root for SOCYPAA! You can get info about the convention go to <http://acypaa2010.org>

Having this convention here would help bring the message to the young and young at heart here in Sonoma County and the surrounding areas, that you can have fun in sobriety and still be working a good program and be of service.

SOCYPAA usually does its elections shortly after we get back from ACYPAA so if you want to get involved I'd suggest that you attend two business meetings to see if you would like to be involved in the business end of things. ;) Because in order to get elected, it is required that you attend two of our business meetings.

We meet every first and third Sunday of the month at 1551 Montgomery Drive, Santa Rosa, at 7:15PM, right after Young and Sober gets out.

Come early if you have any questions.

Till next month, hopefully we'll be coming back with good news about ACYPAA!!

Craig G. (Batman) SOCYPAA's Graphics Chair

HOSPITAL AND INSTITUTION COMMITTEE

“What [the number of incarcerated alcoholics] predicts for those of us in the Fellowship for the next 50 years is a mission, which, if we accept the challenge, can reach the most severely suffering alcoholics in North America.

“Within the last three years, the US Department of Justice released a research report indicating as much as 80% of our prisoners should be classified either problem drinkers or alcoholics. There is little evidence or reason to believe that situation will change significantly during the next 50 years:

Unless during the next 50 years we are willing to share without reservation or prejudice the joy of sobriety with the youth who are suffering alcoholics. Most crime is committed by males between the ages of 17 and 27.

Unless during the next 50 years we are willing to carry the message of sobriety to our neighbors who are suffering alcoholics in the ghettos and barrios of our major cities. A significantly disproportionate number of our prisoners come from black and Hispanic neighborhoods of our metropolitan areas. These inner city dwellers are among the most victimized by alcoholism.” [Part 2 of 1985 address by W.J. Estelle, Jr., then Class A Trustee, Texas]

The Hospitals and Institutions Committee kicked off the year 2010 with a great crop of new meeting reps: Allison, representing New Women in AA; David, Petaluma Birthday Meeting; Allison, Early Birds (Petaluma); David O., Sunday Nitters (Sebastopol); Sylvia, Thursday Big Book Study; Becky B., Women’s Meeting (Petaluma); Toby, Sober Sunday; Mauricio, Harmony Group; Tammy, Women’s Perspectives; Michelle, Noon Movement; Carol, Highlander Group; Gary, Think About It; Suzanne, Tonight Group (Occidental); Nate, Kenwood Group; and Paul, Fresh Air. Welcome and a Happy New Year to you all!

The Committee also welcomed visitors Kelly, Deb, Tory, Dave, Suzanne, Liz, Michael, Terry and Sam—we’re glad you’re here.

Over a century and a quarter total sobriety was being celebrated in the month of January (someone’s keeping up those resolutions!).

Are you willing to share without reservation the joy of sobriety? Come see if H&I service is for you at the next H&I meeting on February 3, 2010, at still the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, at the corner at Range Avenue (parking is off of Range, behind the church). The regular meeting starts at 6:15, with orientation (to which all are welcome) beginning at 5:45. We hope to see you there!

In service,

CACHE CREEK GROUP

Well it’s getting to that time again to have the Annual Meeting on the River. This year the dates are June 26 & 27. This is our 23rd year of a weekend of whitewater rafting and a “Meeting Under the Stars”!

If you have no idea what I am speaking of, don’t worry you will hear all the details. If you know what this is and have never been on this trip, what have you been waiting for? Since we are again teaming up with many from Southern California AA, this is the year!

First of all we have a website www.cachecreekgroup.org that will give you the flavor of it all with some pictures of past years. We go whitewater rafting on the Cache Creek River for two days and have a meeting on Saturday night.

There is no experience I have ever had since I got sober, that matches the feeling of the Saturday night meeting. Sitting under the stars with 200 or more other recovering alcoholics and their families. Yes, you can actually see the stars

The cost of the trip is the same $140 per person for the entire weekend. You can also do this in two payments of $70 each. This price is an incredible bargain as one day of most rafting trips cost more than this.

Keep in mind that includes your food for the weekend. It starts with lunch on the river, then after you are done rafting, they have appetizer tables that have too many items to name (but they have shrimp, nuts, fruit, etc. Following that is a Steak, Chicken or Veggie burger for dinner Saturday night with a 1 pound potato, pasta salad, and corn on the cob, That assumes of course you didn’t fill up on the appetizers! The next morning is breakfast before rafting and another lunch on the river.

This is a brief sketch of the weekend trip. Many have been going every year since they got sober, some folks 20+ years. With that kind of repeat business you know it is worth it.

Now a word about the newcomers in the rooms. If you were anything like many of us when we got sober you were dead broke. I know this has been a difficult year financially for folks, but if there is any way you can do it, we have a Scholarship program that helps newcomers in that position still be able to go rafting. This is a great way for the newcomer to see ways to have fun in Sobriety.

Fliers for the trip are at the bookstore and in the meetings. or again go online to www.cachecreekgroup.org to get information and sign up. Any questions in the meantime can be answered by calling one of the following contacts:
