It's been over 80 years now since Bill W. had his last drinking bout during the closing months of 1934 and we'll celebrate A.A.'s official 80th birthday this summer on the anniversary of Dr Bob's last drink. Isn't it interesting that our official birthday commemorates Bob's last drink rather than Bill's?

Really, it seems, what we celebrate is the carrying of the message of sobriety, rather than the sobriety itself. No doubt, Bill's sobriety began on Dec. 11, 1934 but OUR sobriety... our fellowship and AA itself began when the message was relayed from one alcoholic to another.

For me, alcohol stopped being an issue in my life when carrying the message of A.A. to my fellow alcoholics became an issue in my life. I didn't "solve" drinking or even "quit" drinking one day...drinking just went away for me when YOUR SOBRIETY became important to me. I don't have to know your last name or your profession or frankly even "like" you very much. If I'm thinking of you rather than me, drinking hasn't shown up as an attractive option for me...and I invariably end up liking you.

Just like it's talked about in the 10th Step Promises on pages 84 – 85 in the Big Book "We will see that our new attitude toward liquor has been given us without any thought or effort on our part. It just comes! That is the miracle of it. We are not fighting it, neither are we avoiding temptation."

I've been doing this deal for a while now and I've gone through periods where I was kinda "fighting it"...I was sorta "avoiding temptation". I may have been technically sober but I wasn't carrying the message to the still suffering alcoholic. My life was about me, my and mine.

There's absolutely nothing special about me. Many of you reading this can relate. Here's why I bring it up...If you happen to be going thru one of those periods where your life is a little too much about you...where drinking is something you're "avoiding" or "fighting"... gimme a call. Our Access Sonoma County Committee has opportunities for you to be of service. We're doing some really worthwhile stuff this year and we need you. And by giving it away, you will keep it.

In service, Dan F

Activities Committee

We brought 2014 to a bangin' close with the New Years Dance. Attendance was estimated at 238 wild and crazy dancers, spectators and the like. I would like to take this time to thank all those who were in service to our Activities this year. Without the service of the many volunteers, who with their selflessness, willingness and commitment to Alcoholics Anonymous, 2014 events would not have been possible. Each of you taught me what a beautiful gift that comes with being of service to others brings. Thank you, it has been a great pleasure to serve you all.

In Service, Jessica W-W.

News From The Bookstore

The book special for February is Language of the Heart – 25th Anniversary Edition. It will be on sale for $11.60 + Tax, which is 20 percent off of the retail price of $14.50.

This special 25th anniversary edition (soft cover only) will only be available while supplies last.

Please Note: this is a reprint of the original book with a commemorative cover and new introduction.

Bill W. was the Grapevine's most prolific contributor, writing more than 150 articles, from his first in June 1944 to his last in December 1970.

Here in one volume are all of Bill's Grapevine articles, including his first thoughts about the Traditions, his battles with chronic depression and spiritual pride, memories of an all-night drinking spree with Ebby, and a vivid description of how he came to organize the Steps (there were six in the first draft).

Hospitals and Institutions (H & I)

"I have had many experiences with atheists, mostly good. Everybody in A.A. has the right to his own opinion. It is much better to maintain an open and tolerant society than it is to suppress any small disturbances their opinions might occasion. Actually, I do not know of anybody who went off and died of alcoholism because of some atheist's opinion on the cosmos.

"But I do always entreat these folks to look to a "Higher Power"—namely, their own group. When they come in, most of their A.A. group is sober, and they are drunk. Therefore, the group is a "Higher Power." That is a good enough start, and most of them do progress from there. I know how they feel, because I was once that way myself." [Bill W., Letter 1962]

A whole roomful of new meeting reps introduced themselves at the January meeting of the Hospitals & Institutions Committee, including Cindy R., representing A Vision for You; Nicole S., Step Sisters; Patrick W., Gratitude Group; Jim W., Mid-Week Madness; Julie P., Women In The Solution (Petaluma); Gordon S., and Lori S., Birthday Meeting (Petaluma); Hans B., River Grace (Guerneville); Anthony P. Friday Night Vets; Bryan B., Topix (Healdsburg); Kevin S., Fresh Air; Jim W., Midweek Madness; Jason W., Friday Night Live (Rohnert Park/Cotati); Robin D., Let's Discuss It (Cotati); William H., Sonoma Friday Night; and Karen B., Speaker Discussion Group (Rohnert Park). Thanks to all of you for being of service!

A warm welcome was also extended to our visitors: Ron S., Ed H., Dave O. Dan M., Brad B., Lee J. and Tony W. Keep coming Back!

New Year's Resolutions? Over 80 years of sobriety was being celebrated for January.

Would you like to share your gift with an alcoholic who is confined? For suggestions on how to do that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, February 4, 2015, at 6:15 pm. As always, everyone is welcome to attend the orientation that begins at 5:45. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue (parking is off Range, behind the church, with additional parking at the ice arena).

In service, Mardi H.

Bridging the Gap

I initially got involved with Bridging the Gap in early 2012. I was relatively new to Sonoma County and, since I had my Drug & Alcohol Abuse Studies certification, I needed to know about the County's treatment facilities so I could volunteer at one of them.

I went to a business meeting on the 3rd Tuesday of the month at the Bookstore, showing up at 6:00 pm for the new member orientation, with no idea what to expect. I liked Bridging the Gap from the gate and wished my addicted son had been lucky enough to have them present at one of his rehabs. I knew the gap from the door of a treatment facility to A.A. in one's home community was a treacherous one. If BTG had been there, maybe my son wouldn't still be out there, lost in the dark. Woulda-shoulda-coulda.

Ironically, it took a couple of years for me to step foot in one of the treatment facilities, but I stayed very involved with Bridging the Gap. I took Committee commitments as they came up so I could be in the middle of the BTG herd!

When Tom F. had to step down for serious surgery back in November 2013, I was urged to take the Chair position he had vacated. I balked every inch of the way! "I'm not a leader! I'm a support person—I support leaders!" Fact is, I was scared to death and sure I'd make a mess of it. I reluctantly "made myself available."

Amazingly enough, I grew to like the role! I'm an organized person and I live my life on the computer. I was able to keep track of who was on our committee, who was presenting and where, how many confidential contact cards had been turned in, who needed to get those cards locally and throughout the United States so the newly sober person could be taken to a meeting in his/her hometown when they were released. It's a pretty awesome A.A. service!

This month, Tom F. took the Chair role back and I was relieved to see it go back to such capable hands. I'm now serving as the Alternate Chair as well as the Recording Secretary for CNCA 06. The responsibility statement reads, "When anyone, anywhere reaches out for help, I want the hand of A.A. always to be there, and for that, I am responsible." Come join us on February 17 for our next business meeting!

In Grateful Service, Linda W.

Group Contributions December 2014

ONE way to get at the meaning of the principle of acceptance is to meditate upon it in the context of A.A.'s much used prayer, "God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can, and the wisdom to know the difference." Language of the Heart, page 269
