"In charting this enormous expanse of freedom, we found it necessary to post only two storm signals: A group ought not do anything which would greatly injure A.A. as a whole, nor ought it affiliate itself with anything or anybody else. There could be real danger should we commence to call some groups 'wet,' others 'dry,' still others 'Republican' or 'Communist,' and yet others 'Catholic' or 'Protestant.' The A.A. group would have to stick to its course or be hopelessly lost. Sobriety had to be its sole objective."

How PI/CPC Brought Me to A.A.

When my first husband and I separated for the last of many times during our tumultuous 15-year marriage, I was pretty devastated emotionally and mentally. Fortunately for me, some graduate psychology students from a local university were completing some of the clinical hours they needed for their internship by providing counseling sessions at my youngest daughter's school ... free of charge! I was feeling very desperate to change my life right about then so the timing couldn't have been better for me and the price fit my tight budget.

I liked the young man who became my counselor, and felt comfortable enough to trust him right away. Near the end of my second visit, he said he would be gone for a couple of weeks and in the meantime, he wanted me to check out a couple of A.A. meetings and see what I thought. Although I was in huge denial about my alcoholism, (so I was very surprised when he suggested A.A.!), I liked and trusted my new counselor and I was desperate to feel better. I was desperate to have a better life than I had been living, both for myself and my three teenage daughters, so I was willing to try anything.

I worked with a woman who had not kept it a secret from me that she was a sober member of A.A. I was very attracted to the serenity she exhibited, no matter what was going on around her. I knew I would ask her to take me to an A.A. meeting. Patty took me to a women's meeting in Rohnert Park and by the end of that first A.A. meeting, I think I was jumping up and down, hugging every woman who would have it (they loved to hug with no strings attached) and shouting, Eureka! I knew I had finally found the home I had been searching for my whole life! I went to at least four meetings and had asked Patty to be my sponsor by the time my counselor returned and I had my next visit with him.

That was more than 20 years ago and I have enjoyed all of the wonderful things that the fellowship of Alcoholics Anonymous has to offer since that day. I have had a life I never dreamed possible when I was still drinking and in the pit of despair. Words can't express the gratitude I feel toward that counselor and the PI/CPC (Public Information/Cooperation with the Professional Community) work that our District 12 PI/CPC committee does. That is how my counselor knew about A.A. So, naturally as I have grown in my sobriety and various service commitments, it seemed only natural that I would give back by becoming a member of PI/CPC.

Do you have you two years or more of continuous sobriety, worked the Twelve Steps and have a working knowledge of the Twelve Traditions? We would like to invite you to become an active, regular participant on our committee and you could be part of the service that cooperates with the professionals who work with the alcoholics who still suffer here in Sonoma County. It saves lives!

— Diana W.

If PI/CPC service interests you please come to one of our committee meetings and check it out. We meet on the second Wednesday of every month at 7:30 p.m. in the Santa Rosa City Hall employees' lounge. This is in the City Hall underground parking garage, but please park in the outdoor parking lot.

Bridging the Gap — A.A.'s 'Welcome Wagon'

One of my experiences as a member of the Bridging the Gap committee is that sometimes I have to make the phone calls to our volunteers to create the "bridge" for the member requesting help. On this day I was calling and leaving messages regarding a woman needing help coming out of detox, homeless and reaching out. I got a hold of another woman who said "Sure, I'll be glad to call over to the Orenda Center to reach out." About 20 minutes later this volunteer called me back excited, and hopeful for our prospect. Here is her story:

"I called over to talk to the woman and told her of the meeting I go to and how I would be glad to take her. She was ashamed of where the disease had taken her, and a little timid. I shared with her that the coffee maker of that particular meeting had been homeless two years ago and as a result of Alcoholics Anonymous, she was now showing up and doing the footwork and was a whole and useful member of society today. This really excited the prospect so much and she got tearful and shared how grateful she was for the call."

This particular volunteer was so excited to hear the hope in this prospect's voice she called and shared how much she got out of this simple gesture, the act of reaching out and carrying the message of "hope" to the alcoholic who still suffers!

Like this member of our Fellowship, we are all called to carry the message to the next suffering alcoholic — no matter who that may be. Sometimes it can entail making presentations to treatment centers and detention facilities, or making ourselves available for sponsorship, or welcoming newcomers at meetings, or, witnessing through the lives of others becoming purposeful and happy again. This is the gift we carry to others, wherein we find ourselves "happy, joyous and free."

This is vital Twelfth Step work where the "rubber meets the road." See your Intergroup Rep. for a volunteer form or fill it out online: <http://www.sonomacountyaa.org/get-into-service/bridging-the-gap/>

Be part of the solution. Witness the miracle of sobriety in others as that miracle has been so graciously given to you.

See you at the Bookstore, July 17 at 6 p.m. Intergroup BTG Chair, Claudia N., jerseygirl1189@yahoo.com

TELESERVICE FLASH

The Teleservice Committee reports that there is one shift open for the A.A. Hotline: Thursday 11 a.m. – 2 p.m. The A.A. Hotline is often the first contact someone has with A.A. when they reach out for help — and you could be the one on the other end of the line. Anyone who is interested in this type of service should contact Joe, 591-9376, or email teleservice@sonomacountyaa.org and sign up for a shift or get on the waiting list.

A.A. GRAPEVINE

SCIF presents "The Grapevine: A.A.'s Meeting in Print"

Attention all Grapevine/LaViña Representatives: The seminar on Wednesday, July 25 at 6:30 p.m. at the Bookstore is for you. Of course it's also for DCMs, GSRs, and anyone interested in this excellent magazine. It's interesting that when an individual volunteers (or is "volunteered" — aka railroaded) for the Grapevine Representative's (GvR) position that there are almost no instructions given to them on what they are supposed to do. "It's our meeting in print, it's $28.97 a year, tell a joke" — and then point to the lending library and that is pretty much it. No "Pass-it-on" (instructions for the next trusted servant) is given. And frequently it's a newcomer that is nominated for this job. Who can expect them to even know to research the responsibilities? I believe this lack of information is one of the problems that have plagued the Grapevine (GV) over the years. We now know that we need to promote our magazine if it is to flourish. (Though let us not forget that in 2011 Grapevine reported a profit, and they expect even better things next year.)

For example, lots of GvRs don't realize they should register for instructions and information about the job. When you register you will receive a GvR starter kit with introductory material and a letter and you will also receive a password to access the GrapeNet Forum. (Which you probably didn't know existed.) I know I didn't before I became the Grapevine Chair for our district.

Besides being the voice of A.A.s in the present, the Grapevine is a powerful tool for recovery, reaching the isolated alcoholic confined to a bed or correctional facility, or the person stuck in gridlocked traffic on a Friday evening who is getting more frustrated by the minute. This seminar
