BRIDGING THE GAP

I have had the pleasure and the privilege to be the telephone coordinator for Sonoma County Bridging the Gap for the last 2 years. All service in Alcoholics Anonymous is important and all of it helps keep me sober. But, without question, my favorite is working directly with newly sober alcoholics. There is something truly amazing about watching someone who has lost all hope and who looks at all of the people around them in Alcoholics Anonymous and thinks they must be liars or religious crackpots. It renews my own hope to see the new person's mind opening, out of sheer desperation, to the possibility that maybe the people around them do know how they feel, that maybe this thing could work for them, if they give it a try.

In Bridging the Gap, I would connect sober alcoholics who have had their lives transformed by this program with newly sober alcoholics who are just leaving the safety and security of the treatment centers. The newly sober alcoholics are transitioning from having a head full of information and ideas back into life. If they are to survive, they need first-hand experience with this kit of spiritual tools that really works in rough going. The alcoholics who have been sober for a while have a real desire to carry the message. As the phone coordinator, my favorite thing was hearing back from the guys who had been sober for a while who had met up with the newly sober guys and watched them take their first steps into a life of sobriety and service. The long-term sober alcoholics were more excited than the newbies. It always gave me a dose of that old time, A.A. spirit. What a kick. It has been one of my favorite service positions ever and I would recommend it to anyone.

A.A. LITERATURE

In response to the 2016 General Service Conference recommendation that the pamphlet "Young People and A.A." be revised to "better reflect the experiences of young people in A.A. today," the trustees' literature committee is seeking current sharing from young people in A.A.

Please encourage young members in your area to write their personal stories for possible inclusion in the revised pamphlet "Young People and A.A." Stories should reflect "in a general way what we used to be like, what happened, and what we are like now."

Manuscripts should be 500-800 words, double spaced, in 12-point typeface. The words "Young People and A.A." should appear on the top of the first page of the manuscript. The author's complete name, address and email/telephone information should be included with the submission.

Submissions can be emailed to: literature@aa.org with "Young People and A.A." inserted in the subject line of the message. Alternatively, submissions can be mailed to: Literature Coordinator, General Service Office, Box 459, Grand Central Station, New York, NY 10163. The deadline for all submissions is December 30, 2016. The anonymity of all authors will be observed, whether or not his or her story is selected for publication. Thank you for your participation in this process.

GENERAL SERVICE

The 2016 California Northern Coastal Area (CNCA) Summer Assembly, popularly known as the "Fun Assembly," will be held on Saturday, August 6th, from 9am to 5pm at the Santa Cruz County Fairgrounds in Watsonville. Free registration starts at 8am.

The morning includes the Area business meeting, followed by a free lunch at noon. The "Fun" really starts at 1pm when the first of the two workshop sessions begins. Each session includes a choice of three workshop groups discussing topics of interest to General Service and A.A. as a whole. This is a great excuse for a road trip down the coast!

The Public Information/Cooperation with the Professional Community committee is the public face of Alcoholics Anonymous. Our essential charge is to represent the recovering alcoholic in our fellowship to the world at large wherever we are invited. The Sonoma County fellowship has a dedicated list of volunteer speakers who share their experience, strength, and hope to help spread our message of this life-saving message and inclusivity to whomever has "the desire to stop drinking." Period. In our presentations and shares with DUI classes, schools, and professionals we attempt to clear up misconceptions of our so-called religiosity because of the oft-mentioned references to "God," "Him," "Creator," "Lord," and "Master" in our basic literature written so many decades ago. In his later years, Bill W., in numerous Grapevine articles, expressed regret in implying that his concept of a God was the correct one to the exclusion of all other paths. He further lamented that he may have inadvertently kept hundreds of thousands away with his beliefs.

Thus, in this age of growing secularism, especially among the millennial generation, our message must be unrelenting in our acceptance of all suffering men and women including the religious, non-religious, non-Christian, (Buddhist, Hindu, Jew, Muslim, etc.) and otherwise secular community all of whom this diverse country welcomes and is. Please join us by attending our speaker training at 7pm followed by the business meeting at 7:30pm on Wednesday, July 13; always the second Wednesday of the month. See you there!

~In welcoming service, Chris S.

HOSPITALS & INSTITUTIONS

"I see 'humility for today' as a safe and secure stance midway between violent emotional extremes. It is a quiet place where I can keep enough perspective and enough balance to take my next small step up the clearly marked road that points toward eternal values." [Bill W., Grapevine, June 1961]

On June 1, 2016, the Hospitals & Institutions Committee gratefully recognized new meeting reps Susy E., representing the Keep It Simple group; Joanne G., New Hope Book Study (Rohnert Park); Joyce J., Alcoholics Only; Lisa M., Women's Big Book; Kimberly T., Great Reality; Thomas O., BYOBB; Christy W., Candlelight (Rohnert Park); Terry C., A Vision For You; Michael C., Out of the Ashes (Petaluma); Ben C., Sonoma Valley Fellowship (5:30p); Woody W., Afternoon Delight Group (Cotati); Kaitlyn W., Sonoma Valley Fellowship (10:30a); and Erik T., Azure Acres Fellowship (Sebastopol). Would you like to share your gift with an alcoholic who is confined? For suggestions on how to do that, please come to the next meeting of the H&I Committee, Wednesday, July 6, 2016, at 6:15 pm. As always, everyone is welcome to attend the orientation that begins at 5:45. The location is the Community of Christ Church, 1495 W. Steele Lane, on the corner at Range Avenue.
