Finding a Way to Give Back to A.A.

Today, when I feel the rough ups and downs of life, I pause and instead of feeling badly, and self-centered, I count my many blessings and express gratitude for the many gifts in my life and for another day of sobriety. In fact, sobriety is the gift that I am most grateful for today. Today, I have a new life I never imagined possible when I was drinking and had lost all hope.

I was initially nudged into A.A. by my therapist who thought that my drinking might be clouding my thinking. She reported that A.A. was a successful program for many alcoholics who gave it a chance. I later found out that my therapist knew about A.A. by pamphlets, speakers and health fairs associated with the PI/CPC committee, or Public Information in Cooperation with the Professional Community. It's been 14 years now that I have been a sober member of A.A., and I have to admit, I am not sure I would have found A.A. in such a timely fashion without her encouragement. For that, I am also so grateful.

It seemed so appropriate for me to give back by joining this committee. So I did, and I am happy to report it has been very gratifying and rewarding. Also, I am finally starting to really understand what this committee does and how fundamentally important this committee is to A.A. as a whole. In some areas, the PI and CPC sides are divided into two separate committees, but in our County, PI/CPC serves jointly under the General Service structure.

The purpose of the Public Information (PI) side is to develop and increase awareness in the groups and community that A.A. exists and that it has a program of success, helping those who want and need to grow away from obsessive and destructive drinking. Trained A.A. speakers will talk to the Drunk Driving Programs, probation departments, schools, health fairs, and clients of homeless shelters and any non-A.A. group that requests and AA speaker.

Cooperation with the Professional Community (CPC) is the part of committee that speaks with the professionals, making presentations to doctors, lawyers, judges, clergymen, mental health workers and any other professional who works with the public. These are professionals who come into contact with individuals who have a problem with alcohol.

PI/CPC service is a great commitment. If this service interests you and you have two years of continuous sobriety, please come to one of our committee meetings and check it out.

Good news Folks! November is election month and all positions will be open for election on Wed. Nov. 14, 2012. We meet the second Wednesday of the month at 7:30 p.m. Santa Rosa City Hall employees lounge in the underground parking garage, but please park in the outdoor parking lot. Speaker training is just before the meeting at 7 p.m.

New Winter Hours at Bookstore

Daylight Saving Time will end Nov. 4 and the Central Office and Bookstore hours of operation will be returning to the Winter Schedule as of Monday Nov. 5. This means that the bookstore will be open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday, 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Friday, and 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays. The Spring/Summer schedule will return on March 11, 2013 when Daylight Saving Time returns.

I attended the 27th Annual AAWS/AAGV Intergroup/Central Office Seminar that was held in Bethesda MD from September 28-30. The theme of the seminar was "The total of all our services is spiritual in nature." The seminar provides workshops, presentations by A.A. World Service and A.A. Grapevine and a place for Central Office/Bookstore managers to meet and share their knowledge and experience in a variety of areas that are of common interest and concern to Intergroups in the U.S. and Canada.

The 3rd quarter Bookstore inventory was performed on Sept. 16 and it resulted in a negative cost difference of approximately $80. Thanks to all of the volunteers who donated their time to help out.

TELESERVICE FLASH

The Hotline — A.A.'s Front Line

As a hotline volunteer you are the voice of A.A. You can help alcoholic, as well as non-alcoholic, callers. Calls range from directions to meetings to Twelfth Step work. Get into service, help a drunk in need. If you're interested, contact Joe at 591-9376, or email teleservice@sonomacountyaa.org and sign up for a shift or get on the waiting list.

— Joe B.

Different Methods, But a Common Theme

Some of you know that Bridging the Gap is a sub-committee that helps create a “bridge” for the newcomers getting out of a treatment facility or jail to their first A.A. meeting in their own home community. You may not know about the Workshop Weekend that takes place every year. I have asked our Area Chair from Bridging the Gap to share her experience why these weekends and our local forum we have are so important to continue this vital Twelfth Step work:

“The Bridging the Gap Workshop Weekend was held in Minneapolis on September 7-9. About 75 people from 16 states and two Canadian provinces attended. Although here in Northern California we call ourselves Bridging the Gap, other parts of the county, doing similar Twelfth Step service go under the name Contact on Release, Temporary Contact, or even Bridge the Gap (in the Midwest) and are organized under a Corrections or Treatment Committee. In San Diego County their Contact on Release is actually organized under their H&I Committee. Some temporary contact programs actually take A.A. meetings into their facilities, some areas have their own short-term correspondence program and some actually meet the inmates at the prison gates. But the common theme is always the same - carrying the message and extending the hand of Alcoholics Anonymous.

There were panels of both Corrections and Treatment professionals, as well as speakers from the different areas talking about their temporary contact experience. The weekend has never been a disappointment and continues to inspire me. In 2013 it will be held in Chicago.”

—Submitted by Marylou M., BTG Area Chair

If you would like to get in on this wonderful committee in our district, please show up on the Nov. 20 at 6 p.m. for Orientation at the SCIF Bookstore on 750 Mendocino Avenue, Ste 10.

— Claudia Nola, BTG Chair, District 12; jerseygirl1189@yahoo.com

Workshop for Grapevine Representatives

The Petaluma Alano Club is having an informative workshop for the past, current or future Grapevine Representative! The Grapevine Seminar in July at the bookstore for SCIF was well received — so by popular request, we are doing it again. We will be having two dates for the workshop to make it easier for more people to attend. The dates are: Thursday, Nov. 15, 2012 from 7:30-8:30 p.m. and Thursday, Nov. 29, 2012 from 7:30-8:30 pm. Note that it is the same workshop, just two different dates. The Petaluma Alano Club is located in the Town and Country Shopping Center at 1050 Petaluma Blvd. North. There is ample parking.

Our goals are to: Connect GvRs with the great resources that are available to them; inform them about the colorful history; discuss their responsibilities; and talk about submitting stories, photos or artwork to the magazine. We aim to give them the information that they will need and want to know. The A.A. Grapevine International Journal of Alcoholics Anonymous is the present-tense voice of our members, it is an international Twelfth Step call, it is inspiration and support for the A.A. who still suffers. We are lucky to have it. So come to the workshop GvRs and get your “pass-it-on!”

Call Judy B. (District 12 Grapevine Chair) at 707-664-1839 for more information.

— Peace, Judy
